

Writer Coach Connection's Oliver Ranch Art Tour

Art lovers... here's your chance to tour the much acclaimed Oliver Ranch in Geyserville — and support WCC — on Saturday, April 16. Nestled in the heart of the Alexander Valley, this 100-acre ranch is one of the country's premiere private reserves for site-specific art. Over the past 20 years, Steve and Nancy Oliver have commissioned large works of art that rise up over the rolling hills of the ranch's landscape. Works include a quarter-mile long staircase by Bruce Nauman, massive steel blocks from Richard Serra, sound sculptures by Bill Fontana, Ann Hamilton's eight-story tower, and much more.

A 2-3 hour hike in the woods, the tour covers approximately 2.5 miles and is not wheelchair accessible.

Saturday, April 16
9:00-1:00 pm
Tickets: $75/person

To reserve a space, call CAFL board member Loretta Kane at (510) 558-3377, then mail a check ($75/person) to CAFL, PO Box 6098, Albany, CA 94706.

The tour departs from the Healdsburg Park & Ride at 9:00 am and returns there at approximately 1:00 pm.

Tickets are going fast. To reserve your space, send your check to Community Alliance for Learning (CAFL), PO Box 6098, Albany, CA 94706. Memo: "Art Tour." Please include the name, email address, and phone number of your party's contact person and the names of others in your party. Tickets are a donation to Community Alliance for Learning; no cancellations or refunds.

The Oliver Ranch is not open to the public which makes this an exclusive tour.
For questions: 510-524-9270.

